Fayetteville Public Library, Symphony of Northwest Arkansas partner for April programs

Symphony of Northwest Arkansas and Fayetteville Public Library are partnering to bring two musical events to the community during the first week of April. The first program, scheduled for Saturday, April 1, at 10:30 a.m., is a program for families that teaches children about basic musical concepts. The second program, scheduled for Sunday, April 2, at 2 p.m., consists of a performance from the SoNA Chamber Singers.

Both events are free and open to the public.

On Saturday, a SoNA trio consisting of a flute, bassoon and percussion will perform fun songs for families in addition to some familiar orchestra repertoire. Attendees will also have the opportunity to be the “maestro” with conducting practice, play movement activities and learn more about instruments. The Saturday event is geared toward families and is being held in conjunction with the Fenner Russell Memorial Music Series.

On Sunday, the SoNA Chamber Singers will perform. Directed by Terry Hicks, the SoNA Chamber Singers is an auditioned group from across Northwest Arkansas. The SoNA Chamber Singers focus on preparing a variety of choral literature for the enjoyment and education of the Northwest Arkansas community and beyond.
