Fayetteville Public Library set to host Summer Reading Club Kickoff Party

Fayetteville Public Library will celebrate their annual Summer Reading Club with a kickoff party Saturday, June 3, from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the library.

The kickoff will feature the Hugg & Hall Construction Zone with touchable machines, bounce houses, stilt walking, face painting, a photo booth, balloons, a food court, hair streaking, temporary tattoos, a LEGO building station, a Friends of the Library book sale and more.

“The kickoff party is our most celebrated bash of the year,” said David Johnson, executive director at Fayetteville Public Library. “We encourage everyone to come be a part of this fun, family-friendly event for the community.”

Summer Reading Club is the library’s largest event of the year. This year’s theme is "Build a Better World." In 2016, more than 4,500 kids, teens and adults participated in the club, and nearly 20,000 people attended a summer program. To sign up for Summer Reading Club, or for more information, visit www.faylib.org/summer.

Summer Reading Club Kickoff is sponsored by Hugg & Hall. Media sponsors for the kickoff include KUAF 91.3 and Cox Communications. Children’s Summer Reading is sponsored by Friends of Fayetteville Public Library.
