Download Zinio Magazines Get Started Today!

Getting Started

- Download popular magazines that are yours to keep!
- Using FPL's Zinio services will require creation of two accounts: a Library account using FPL's browser page and a Zinio account using a browser and/or mobile app.
- To access FPL's magazines, you will need to add them to your Zinio account through FPL's browser page first.

How to Download Magazines (Online)

1. Go to www.faylib.org, click on Research, then select Newspaper and Magazine Articles, then click on Zinio.
2. Click on Create Account and fill in required information. (This is your Library account).
3. An email will be sent to verify your email address to complete your registration. Go to your email and click on the link provided.
4. Sign in to your account when prompted. The FPLL collection should appear on the screen.
5. Search the collection and find a title you would like to view.
6. Click on the cover. A new internet tab will open.
7. Fill in the required information and click Register. (This is your Zinio account) Your magazine will be added to your reading list.
8. Click on the cover to open. A new window will open with your selected magazine.
9. To remove a magazine, login and click Go To My Zinio Collection.
10. Click Edit Your Reading List and click the red X on the cover. Your page should refresh and the title should be gone.

How to Access Magazines Using the Zinio App

To access magazines via the Zinio app you must follow the previous instructions.

1. Open your app store and search for Zinio.
 2. Download, install, and open the app.
 3. Sign in with your Zinio account when you are prompted. If you are not prompted to sign in, click on More and then click Sign In.
 4. Your magazine(s) should appear under My Library.
 5. Click on the download arrow to download and read a magazine.
 6. To remove a magazine, click on Edit, click the circle on the right, and then click Remove at the bottom of the screen. Click Done when you are finished. You may remove more than 1 magazine at a time.
